Let us find your perfect venue from our impressive range of atmospheric properties, handpicked for their originality, providing a unique experience and each having its own special 'wow factor'.

The Unique Traveller's expert team will plan, organise & deliver the complete event from concept to completion.

We handle site selection, participant registration, transport and accommodation, agenda development, audiovisual equipment, entertainment, gala dinners and leisure activities. All this to your specification and within your budget.

We will work with all sizes of function in our selected locations, from quiet management retreats to larger venues. Our expertise includes meetings linked to incentive programmes or special VIP venues hosting sporting or festival events.

Let us help you choose from the best that Spain has to offer.
